Re: Docket Nos. 6636, 6637, 6644

1 Creditors Kevin Burnett, Leslie Moore, Darwin Crabtree, Sandra Crabtree, Joseph
2 Garfield, Robert Eldridge, Benjamin Greenwald d/b/a Greenwald Pest Defense; Lore Olds d/b/a
3 Sky Vineyards, Skyla Olds, Nancy Hitchcock, Herman Bossano, Rebecca Bailey, Ph.D. d/b/a It's 4 Mine Don't Touch Trust and Transitioning Families, and Charles Holmes ("Wildfire Claimants")
5 are individuals and businesses who suffered losses in wildfires caused by PG&E.

6 Tens of thousands of claimants injured by PG&E will be deciding how to cast their vote 7 on the Debtors' proposed plan of reorganization. The Wildfire Claimants believe that those 8 creditors should be entitled to full, accurate, and truthful information about the plan on which 9 they are being asked to vote. The plan of reorganization, if approved, will lead to a final 10 adjudication of their claims, and will determine how much will be available to compensate
11 victims for their losses. Accordingly, Wildfire Claimants urge this Court to grant the TCC's 12 motion and allow it to provide its proposed supplemental disclosures to all claimants in this 13 bankruptcy to empower those claimants to make an informed decision. The claimants in this case
14 have lost their homes, their livelihoods, their businesses, and their loved ones to PG&E's
15 misconduct and neglect. As the possible conclusion of these proceedings draws near, they deserve 16 to cast their vote armed with the truth and with eyes wide open.
